

Medicaid Income Limits for 2006

To qualify for Medicaid through SSI the income limit for an aged, blind or disabled individual cannot exceed $623 per month or $924 for a couple. In addition, resource limits apply. For an individual the resources cannot exceed $2,000 per month or $3,000 for a couple. Some examples of resources are: cash, money in checking and savings accounts, loans, promissory notes, stocks, bonds, time deposits (certificates of deposit, annuities, etc), mutual funds, mineral and timber rights, real estate, etc. [Individuals must apply with the Social Security Administration for the SSI (Supplemental Security Income) Program.]

Nursing Home (Institutionalized) Medicaid:

The Medicaid income limit for individuals eligible for the Nursing Home (institutional) program is $1,809 per month. The resource limit is $2,000. Please see the “Medicaid for the Elderly and Disabled” handout for detailed information.

Home and Community Based Waivers:

The income limits for these waivers are as follows:

Elderly and Disabled Waiver is $623 per month.

Independent Living Waiver is $1,809 per month.

Mentally Retarded Waiver is $1,809 per month.

HIV/AIDS Waiver is $1,809 per month.

Technology Assisted Waiver is $1,809 per month.

The resource limit for these waivers is $2,000 per month.

OMB or Qualified Medicare Beneficiary:

Income cannot exceed $837 per month for an individual

Income cannot exceed $1,120 per month for a couple

SLMB or Specified Low Income Medicare Beneficiary:

Income cannot exceed $1,000 per month for an individual

Income cannot exceed $1,340 per month for a couple

NOTE: The resource limits do not apply for these programs. If the person applying is married, use the couple income limit.

SOBRA Medicaid (Pregnant Women and Children under 6 years of age) - 133% of federal poverty level:

Income after deductions* cannot exceed $1,087 per month for a family of 1

Income after deductions* cannot exceed $1,463 per month for a family of 2

Income after deductions* cannot exceed $1,840 per month for a family of 3

Income after deductions* cannot exceed $2,217 per month for a family of 4

SOBRA Medicaid (Children 6 to 19 years of age) – 100% of federal poverty level:

Income after deductions* cannot exceed $817 per month for a family of 1

Income after deductions* cannot exceed $1,100 per month for a family of 2

Income after deductions* cannot exceed $1,384 per month for a family of 3

Income after deductions* cannot exceed $1,667 per month for a family of 4

Medicaid for Low Income Families:

Income after deductions* cannot exceed $111 per month for a family of 1

Income after deductions* cannot exceed $137 per month for a family of 2

Income after deductions* cannot exceed $164 per month for a family of 3

Income after deductions* cannot exceed $194 per month for a family of 4

*Certain deductions, such as $90 work deduction per wage earner, dependent care costs and $50 per household for child support received, may be deducted from the gross income to determine the net income amount for the SOBRA and MLIF programs.

NOTE: Please see the eligibility requirements for SOBRA/MLIF (Medicaid for Low Income Families) for family sizes over 4.

(Effective February 1, 2006)